ELEANOR ALLAN
In loving memory of

*"Friends are the pillars on your porch. Sometimes
they hold you up,
sometimes they
lean on you and sometimes it's just enough to know
that they are standing by."*

Eleanor Allan passed away peacefully with her family by her side after a brief stay at Watrous Hospital. Eleanor was predeceased by her husband Russell N. Allan on October 23, 2005. Left to mourn are her daughters Debbie Allan and Mardel (Dave) Saretsky; grandsons Lee (Deirdre) their children Oliver and Naomi Saretsky, Neil Saretsky, Carson (Jessica) Saretsky; sister Stella Vermes of Victoria, BC along with two sons and families. She also leaves to mourn sister-in-laws Joan (Don) Harding, Doris (Vern) Wilcox; brother-in-law Dwight (Shirley) Allan; and numerous nieces and nephews. Eleanor was born on her grandfather Levi Habermehl's homestead north of Manitou Lake to Fred and Edith Easton. The family then pioneered on north to Carrot River. Eleanor's aunt Irene Crittenden today knows many of the family stories. Eleanor skied, walked or rode a horse to a one-room school in the Carrot River District. Accomplishing a grade 9 education she ventured out into the real world and headed south to Watrous. She married Russell Allan March 4, 1955 and raised two daughters.

They farmed at Amazon, SK. Eleanor worked hard on the farm, milking cows, raising chickens, gardening and all the household duties a homemaker does. She was a good cook and baked many an angel food and carrot cake. She loved to sew and knit many toques, mitts, afghans and cowichan sweaters. She worked just as hard off the farm at Carman's Hardware Store and Simpson Co-op was her last post, retiring after 23 years of service. Many a good weekend and days off were spent entertaining her three grandsons, Lee, Neil and Carson and the great grandchildren. She played a good hand of cards, a game or two of bingo and loved a drive to a casino. Mom did not enjoy flying or anything to do with water. She would reluctantly participate. They moved to Watrous in 1982 and never looked back. She belonged to the Do-Gooders, United Church and Seniors Drop-In and was always willing to give a ride to a function. She enjoyed the fellowship on coffee row and her neighbours and friends in Watrous. Eleanor's family thank-you for attending the reception in memory of her life.
