

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Music was the fabric of who Sharon was as a person; she believed in its power to heal and bring joy. From her childhood years through to her 70's, she touched hundreds of thousands of people with her singing and music therapy work. We take comfort in knowing that all who loved her will hear her singing in their hearts and minds whenever they think of her and be better for it.

For those so wishing donations to the
