

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

*The body has returned to sod,
The spirit has returned to God.
So on this spot, no need for grief,
Here only lies a fallen leaf.
Until new blossoms form in time,
The tree is where I now reside.
But with this poem, as you can see,
They haven't heard the last of me.*

For those so wishing, in lieu of flowers, memorial donations to
ALLAN BLAIR CANCER CENTRE
would be appreciated
